

Academic Success Programs

Mission Statement

The goals of the University of Washington Law School Academic Success Programs are:

- To assist students in reaching their full academic potential by optimizing opportunities to develop as effective, empowered, and reflective learners and professionals.
- To support teaching faculty in assuring that students meet course goals and objectives.
- To ensure that students with diverse learning styles, life experiences, and skill sets achieve their academic goals and become successful legal professionals.
- To advance the school's commitment to justice and equity by working to overcome systemic barriers to student success.
