2022-23 Washington Leadership Institute Applications

Thank you for your interest in the Washington Leadership Institute. The Washington Leadership Institute (“WLI”) is a collaborative leadership program between the Washington State Bar Association and the University of Washington School of Law (UW Law). The program is governed by a volunteer Advisory Board that includes representation from all three of our state’s law schools, and is administratively staffed by UW Law.

Starting September 12, 2022, the WLI will begin accepting applications for the incoming 2022-2023 class of Fellows. All required application materials must be received at the UW Law office no later than October 9, 2022, at 5:00 p.m.

The WLI is an innovative and award-winning leadership training program that originated in the WSBA under the guidance of Bar President Ron Ward. The mission of the WLI is to recruit and train diverse and underrepresented lawyers for future leadership within the legal and bar community.

Twelve attorneys, in practice for at least three years and not more than ten years, will be carefully selected for the seventeenth year of the program. The eight professional development seminars run from January to August 2023. Upon successful completion, Fellows will earn a significant number of CLE credits, and the program is provided at no charge to participants.

Program Requirements

To be considered for the program, applicants must:

- Reside in Washington State.
 - a. If work takes you outside of the state this should be discussed with co-chairs prior to acceptance into the program.
- Timely submittance of all required application materials.
- Be an active WSBA member.
- Have been admitted to practice law in a U.S. jurisdiction for at least three years and not more than ten years. (Eligibility based on Date of Bar Admission) Therefore, in order for you to be able to apply to WLI this year, you must have been admitted to the bar by Dec. 31, 2019.
- Be nominated by their employer, or if self-employed, by a lawyer with at least 10 years of practice or a judge.
- Make a two-year commitment to the program (participate in every session and following the completion of the first year, Fellows are expected to serve on a WSBA section or committee or participate in a bar or community-related activity).
- 100% attendance and participation are required of all Fellows at each of the eight sessions, regardless of whether the sessions are in person or remote/virtual.

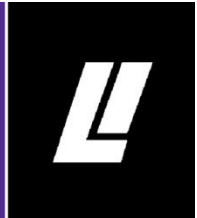

Required Application Materials

- Completed and signed application.
- Nomination from employer, or if self-employed, by a lawyer with at least 10 years of practice or a judge.
- Cover letter expressing your interest in being a 2023 Fellow, how your selection would contribute to the mission of the Leadership Institute, and examples of how you have demonstrated your leadership capacity.
- A professional résumé.
- A list of three references (applicants are encouraged to submit at least one reference who can discuss their leadership experience or leadership potential in the legal community.)
