TONI REMBE LECTURE
FEATURING ACLU PRESIDENT
DEBORAH N. ARCHER

Wednesday, May 8, 2024

ABOUT

ACLU President Deborah Archer joins UW Law Dean Tamara Lawson to discuss defending democracy, civil liberties, and civil rights in a divided nation. As a public institution, the UW is committed to educating and informing our community, and upholding our democracy. This event was made possible in conjunction with the Provost's Office.

SPEAKERS

Deborah N. Archer is President of the American Civil Liberties Union and a leading expert in civil rights, civil liberties and racial justice. She is Associate Dean for Experiential Education and Clinical Programs, the Margaret B.
